Counterfeiters Captured.

From the Macon Telegraph.

CHATTANOOGA, June 4.—United States officers have succeeded in capturing Fred Fowler and William Ferguson, two members of a counterfeiter's gang who have been working this section for over two months. It is estimated that there is upwards of $15,000 in counterfeit coin now in circulation, besides a large number of $5 silver certificates. It is believed the whole gang of counterfeiters will be apprehended within the next ten days.

RESERVED RIGHTS.

Or Joe Brown and the Ferryman—An Unpublished Incident.

No man, in all Georgia, has been more pronounced in his views on the reserved rights of the people than Senator Joe Brown. Born near the home of John C. Calhoun, he stood erect in the States Rights doctrine "as one of the straitest of the sect."

But how it so happened that while a more youth, he impressed the people of North Georgia with his restrictive views, is illustrated in the following story told on the distinguished Senator by Col. T. J. Boyd, of Bartow county:

The Browns were moving from South Carolina into Georgia. At that time they were very humble in circumstances, and while poor were regarded as good honest folk. Such a peasantry as Georgia would now gladly welcome to re-humid her waste places.

The Browns were moving to Habersham county. They reached Taguloo river at Garrett's ferry. Mackey Brown, the paterfamilias, with the family had crossed over. The ferryman returned for the lad Joseph and his team, which was the bull, afterwards so famous on the hillsides of Gaddistown, hitched to a two wheel cart. The ferryman demanded more toll than young Brown thought right. A colloquy ensued, whereupon the plucky young emigrant from the land of the Nullifiers walked deliberately up to the signpost on which the schedule of rates was fastened, and read aloud the formal list. Turning resolutely to the ferryman, he said: "You cannot charge me a cent for my bull cart. My team is not mentioned in your schedule. You can only charge for teams included in the list. Charters are to be construed strictly. Privileges not granted are reserved. I stand upon my reserved rights, and I dare you to violate your charter and receive toll for team not specified." And the historic team passed over on to Georgia soil free of tariff.

The ferryman was struck with the precocity of the new comer, talked of him to his neighbors—and thus it was, in early life, at the very threshold of his entrance into Georgia, Gov. Brown became famous as a shrewd man in a trade.

A miss, upon whose flaxen curls the suns of fourteen summers had shed their golden fervor, came home the other afternoon, weeping as though her heart would break, and meeting a playmate, exclaimed, in a paroxysm of grief, "O, Susie, we were engaged to be married, and now Charlie's got the measles!"

Is God Here?

A yeg man had been extremely pious and thought little of the matter. After his marriage to a highbanded, lovely wife, the habit appeared to him in a different light he made spasmodic efforts to conquer it. But not until a few months ago did he become victor, with the glowing evil was set before him, by a little incident, in its regard shocking sinfulness.

One Sunday morning, standing before the mirror shaving, the razor slipped, inflicting a slight wound. True to his fixed habit he ejaculated the single word, "God!" and was at a little amazed and chagrined to see reflected in the mirror the pretty picture of his little three-year-old daughter, as lying her little dolly hastily down, she sprang from her seat on the floor, exclaiming, as she looked eagerly and expectantly at the room, "Is God here?"

Startled and ashamed, and at a loss for a better answer, he simply said, "Why?"

"Cause I thought he was when I heard you speak to him."

Then pitying the sober look on his face, and the tears of shame in his eyes, he gazed down into the innocent, radiant face, she patted him lovingly on the head, exclaiming, "Call him again, papa, and I deem he'll surely come."

O, how every syllable of the child's trusting words cut to his heart! The still, small voice was heard at last. Catching the wondering child upon his arms he knelt down, and for the first time in his life implored of God forgiveness for the past offenses and guidance for all his future life. Looking him in fervent spirit that he had not "surely come" before in his answer to some of his awful blasphemies. Surely "a little child shall lead them."—Paraphrase.

ITS SECOND CRIME.

Wild Bill Stephens Does Another Murderous Deed

From the Macon Telegraph.

Midville, June 4.—Your correspondent has received intelligence from Emanuel county that William Stevens, on Sunday afternoon, while at Mr. J. Cross' place, four miles south of here, got into a dispute with a Mr. Birch, and he caught Birch, and threw him to the ground. At this time Mr. Cross went to Stevens and asked him to let Birch alone whereupon Stevens turned upon Cross. They did not pass any blows Cross telling him to keep cool. This did not content Stevens, and so he jerked loose from Cross and ran some distance to where Mr. Andrew Fountain was standing and jerked a loaded cane from his hand. Fountain said to him, "Bill, don't do so," whereupon Stephens struck Mr. Fountain on the head, inflicting, it is thought by Dr. Johnson, a fatal blow.

Mr. Fountain was a quiet, peace-loving young man, and there is no cause assigned for Stevens and Birch were both intoxicated, while Cross and Fountain were both cool. Stephens is the same man who some time ago hit Bowen the cripple at Wadley, Ga., and broke his skull.

It is said Mr. Fountain has a brother in Savannah, Ga. Stevens is better known in this section as Wild Bill. He is yet at large.

There are 1,134 Georgian soldiers buried in Hollywood cemetery at Richmond, Va. The people of Georgia are asked to raise $300 to mark their graves. Gov. Gordon suggests that the papers throughout the state open subscription lists for this purpose and forward amounts to Comp-troller-General W. A. Wright, Atlanta, who will remark the same to Mrs. E. C. Minor, Richmond, Va., who has charge of the laudable work.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT DALLONIA, GA.
DALLONIA, GA., June 16, 1888.

FIFTEENTH Ann'l Commencement OF THE NORTH GEORGIA AGRICUL- TURAL COLLEGE, DALLONIA, GEORGIA, JUNE, 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th, 1888.

The arrival of the many vehicles, on Saturday evening last, was the forthcoming evidence, predicting a grand success of the Fifteenth Anniversary Commencement of the North Georgia Agricultural College. By night a great number of visitors had arrived and the hotels and nearly every house in the city was filled with its quota of visitors from the mountains to the sea board. The people throughout this section take in the commencement for all that it is worth—they came from all sections of the surrounding country and when the bell rang for the people to gather it was one solid mass going thither to obtain seats before it was too late.

Rev. Clement A. Evans, having accepted an invitation to deliver the Commencement Sermon, came in due season and at eleven o'clock, on Sunday morning, the ringing of the College bell assembled a very large concourse of people in this College Chapel, and the services were commenced by singing of appropriate anthems, Miss Corrie Allen presiding at the organ and Mrs. A. C. Johnson, assistant and leading in the choir, whose services are always indispensable in assemblies of the kind. Mr. Evans after the singing delivered a most touching and pathetic prayer and then commenced his eloquent discourse which was most appropriately adapted for the occasion, and which was listened to with profound interest by the audience.

His language in advice to the young men to go up step by step in usefulness and honor until they reached the goal that awaits them all beyond, in the habitation of God, was sublime in eloquence and sentiment and speech and admirably praised, throughout, by the people of our town.

At the conclusion of his grand sermon, a fervent impressive and appropriate prayer was invoked by the Rev. C. V. Weathers, our local pastor of the M. E. Church.

He preached also at night and his sermon was equally interesting.

Monday morning arrived and the sweet strains of music from the Atlanta Capitol band was evidence that the Commencement was here in good earnest. Messrs Frank Beiman 1st Violin, P. L. Nassbaum 2nd Violin, W. E. Harty, Cornet, F. W. Lilley, Clarinet and Prof. J. C. Ford, Bass, composed the Orchestra who arrived the evening before. They spent an hour in their melodious strains to the delight and enjoyment of hundreds of people who had gathered together on the public square, in front of the Barnside hotel.

The people assembled at the College Chapel at 9 o'clock to begin the exercises and the programme of Freshman and Sophomore classes were resumed by the young men in their respective classes of declamation which was highly creditable to the young men namely: Freshman class, John W. Lamb, Valusia Co., Fla., Henry B. Carmichael, Butts Co., Ga.; Geo. C. West, Habersham Co., Ga.; Geo. W. Tribble, Franklin Co., Ga.; Carl Wellborn, Union Co., Ga.; and James V. Kelly, Burke Co., Ga., Sophomore Class: Wm. B. Chambliss, Jackson Co., Ga.; Oscar P. Brazleton, Jackson Co., Ga.; Ed. H. Almond, Rockdale Co., Ga.; Isaac G. Walker, Griffin Co., Ga.; Louis O. Simmons, Atlanta, Ga.

At intervals between the exercises of the classes the band played appropriate airs to the enjoyment of the assembled audience.

At 5 o'clock in the afternoon the prize drill came off; contestants—twenty five of the best drilled cadets in the manual of arms.

The boys came out in good trim and after a few evolutions on the public square by their much beloved and highly respected Major Hodgson, giving commands and capt. Lyman Hall, graduate of West Point friend of Maj. Hodgson, and professor of mathematics in the school of Technology, Atlanta, keeping the rolls seven dropped out at one time and so on until it came down to four and finally after a very creditable effort upon the part of all, left Mr. J. B. Clarke, standing who was pronounced the successful winner of the prize for the best drilled cadet of the twenty five. A shout went up from the crowd and the young man bore off the prize with pride to himself and the delight of his friends.

At night the programme of the Corona Hedera Society came off at the College Chapel, presided over by Miss Lizzie Chapman of the Female Department. The programme, throughout, was well rendered, the music was excellent and the audience, that could not be seated, the aisles and surrounding vacancies being filled to a perfect jam were highly entertained, and much credit is due Miss Lizzie Chapman for the arrangement of this most interesting programme. We would like to particularize the many scenes enumerated in the programme, but we find our space will not contain it and therefore we hope our young friends will take the will for the deed and excuse briefly. However, we must say that before the explosion, was pronounced by Prof. Ford of the Orchestra to be the best scene of the occasion. Call Strickland fired his bomb a little too soon, but those who saw it, laughed heartily at the child like anxiety to do his part.

Tuesday at eleven o'clock, the programme of the exercises were somewhat changed, on account of the fact that Capt. J. W. Boyd, of the class of '84, who was to deliver the Alumni Oration, could not possibly attend on account of his pressing duties enjoined upon him by the Gainesville college, in which he is a professor. He had his speech prepared and very much regretted the circumstances which prevented him from filling his engagement. This hour was supplanted by an address by Mr. W. C. Martin of the class of '84, subject "The efficiency of nature or the Ruling Queen."

The speech of Mr. Martin was one of rare beauty and excellence. It was grand in conception, eloquent in delivery and was one of the most beautiful pieces of word painting we ever listened to. He captured his audience at once and held the vast throng in rapt attention for thirty minutes. He paid a glowing tribute to womanhood in every phrase of human diversity, and closed with a warm appeal to this Society to always exert their far reaching influence for the inspiration of human endeavors. The speech was a gem and elicited universal praise. Many congratulations greeted him on its delivery from among the Board of Visitors and commencement attendants.

At five o'clock Tuesday afternoon the people assembled in large numbers upon the parade ground to witness the sham battle, which had been arranged by Maj. Hodgson, the military commandant; and as we have had large experience in scenes of that kind, we join in with all the scar worn veterans in pronouncing this effort, as the grandest that has ever been initiated on our parade ground.

The battle was well formed the skirmishers were well deployed the artillery men were well drilled and the firing, the charge and the fight over the pieces, were almost genuine, and we were considerably enthused, as it brought brilliantly to our memory the days of 'yore,' that tried men's souls.

We had to hold Jim Davis, John Hously, and several other old veterans, to keep them out of the charge. Maj. Hodgson deserves much credit for the success he has made in his department.

At 5 o'clock in the afternoon the prize drill came off; contestants—with spectators and the Union Debate came off. Subject: "That Gen. Jackson's actions in a Seminole war were justifiable." Hamblee and Wellborn affirmed Strickling and Vioery, Negative.

The boys spread themselves, and Hon. Evan P. Howell wired the umpire on this occasion died in favor of the affirmative.

At eleven o'clock, on Wednesday, the Trustees faculty and Board of visitors and citizens milled in front of the Bessie Hall and proceeded in march to the College Chapel, to hear the annual Oration of the Hon. Evan P. Howell, of Atlanta. This was the largest audience that any of the exercises contained. The exercises were opened with prayer by thier. G. Hughes fervently and impressive, and the orator was introduced by Col. Bassenger, the Prof. of the College. Mr. Howell who for his subject "Labor," which handled with such an impressive manner that elicited the strictest attention and approval of the audience assembled.

Messrs. Carl Wellborn and T. M. Strickling delivered the storey Diplomas to the graduating class in very appropriate little speeches. Dixie, the Orchestra brought down the house, in applause.

At five o'clock the two companies engaged in a prize drill at drill ground, before a large gathering of people, and company A. Capt. John Charles Woodard of Butts Co., Ga., carried off to prize.

At 8 o'clock Wednesday night was the Junior and Senior classes declamation. Miss Leslie Hanger was awarded the Latin medal and two prizes were given for the best speakers in the Freshman and Sophomore classes. Hon. F. C. Tate, of Pickens, in a neat and short little talk delivered the prizes.

Mr. John W. Lamb was awarded the prize, of the Freshman class and L. O. Simmons, was awarded the prize in the Sophomore. President Bassenger in the absence of the Chancellor delivered the diplomas to the graduates.

John Charles Woodward, of Butts county, Wm. T. Swanson, Towns county, Wm. A. Sheldon, Wallhalla, S. C., John H. Morris, and H. M. Fletcher, Griffin, Ga., composed the graduating class.

Col. Price, Pres. of the Board Trustees delivered the teachers' license.

At the conclusion, Mr. W. C. Martin, of Spring Place, one of the Alumni of the College, called attention to the matter of raising a fund to erect a monument over the grave of the late President D. W. Lewis. Contributions will be forwarded to Miss Lizzie Chapman, of the Female Department for this laudable purpose.

We hope that a large amount will be contributed to perpetuate the memory of this grand old man. Thousands and thousands of people feel the benefits derived from his advice and instructions, and this small tribute to his memory should meet the aid of every friend of the institution from its inception up to the present.

The Annual festival was given at the College Chapel last night, and the attendance was large. The young people and old ones too enjoyed the dance and the highbly of occasion to their hearts content.

Thus closed the Fifteenth Annual Commencement of the N. G. A. College.

A GLORIOUS TIME APPROACHING.

The 42nd Georgia Preparing for the Grandest Re-union, Ever Held.

The grandest re-union ever held in Georgia will come off at Monroe, Walton County, on the 20th July next. A big barbeque, eloquent speaking, will be features of the day. The executive committee of the 42nd Georgia regiment, confederate veterans association, of which L. E. Thomas is President, and M. Durban Secy, met and agreed upon the following programme:

Ex-Gov. Henry D. McDaniel was chosen to deliver the welcome address.

W. L. Clifton, Captain Co. K, and president of the Fulton county

Confederate Veterans' Association, will respond for the association.

Col. W. H. Hulseley will deliver an address on war reminiscences.

Capt. W. F. Smith, of Buford, Ga., who commanded Co. B in the battles around Atlanta, will make a like address.

Short talks from other members of the regiment will also be made.

Gov. John B. Gordon and Gen. R. J. Henderson promised to be there, and no doubt will entertain the vast crowd with eloquent words appropriate to the occasion.

Most of the members of the executive committee and other friends, will be accompanied by their families, and many hearty hand shakes and greetings will they have. This regiment has had several re-unions, in Atlanta. Some of the most prominent citizens of this city once had the honor to follow its glorious colors—now faded and battle scarred. Our people are always glad to do them honor, and the good people of the county of Walton will be glad to have them there. A big time and happy event is in store for these "old rebs" who fought so hard on the 20th, 22d, and 28th of July around Atlanta for our people and city. May they have many more happy re-unions.—Atlanta Acolanah.

Col. J. W. H. Underwood, with his lady, of Cleveland took in the commencement. Also Mrs. Asbury and Mrs. Logan.

Purify Your Blood.

Body and Mental health depends upon a healthy condition of the blood. The blood particularly in the spring and summer months, becomes clogged with impurities, which poison it, and generally necessitate the use of a blood purifier to restore a healthy tone. The best purifier and tonic known is Swift's Specific (S. S. S.). Of its wonderful purifying and tonic powers we give a few testimonials.

Mr. Wm. A. Siebold, with George P. Rowell & Co., 10 Spruce Street N. Y., writes "I feel it my duty, for the benefit of others who may be afflicted as I was to write you this letter, which you can use in any way you choose. I suffered great pain from boils, all over my neck; I could not turn my head without acute pain. After trying all the blood remedies and very soon I was entirely relieved of my 'Job's Comforters.' Now not a sign of my affliction can be seen."

Mr. M. S. Hamlin, Winston, N. C. writes, "I use it every spring. It always builds me up giving me appetite and digestion and enabling me to stand the hot summer days. On using it I soon become free of body and easy of mind."

Mr. C. E. Mitchell, West 23d St. Fort, New York writes: "I weighed 116 pounds when I began taking your medicine, and now 152 pounds I would not be without S. S. S. for several times its weight in gold."

Attention Public School Teachers.

The County Board of Education will meet on Tuesday, 16th day of July for the purpose of contracting with Teachers, locating schools over the County, &c.

All persons having business of any kind whatever with the Board would do well to be present on that day. As that will be the last opportunity offered before the beginning of the Public Schools.

A few competent colored Teachers can get employment under the Board of Education of this Lumpkin County.

By order of the Board.

C. H. JONES, Pres. Board.
J. B. BROWN, Secy.

Prof. Ward leaves for Europe to-morrow, and his family will go to their old home in Brunswick and remain until he returns. Thence will return to their home in this city.

TEN CENT STORE.—Mr. M. Glover of the Ten Cent store, Gainesville paid his respects to this office yesterday and he attended the festival at the College last night.

ARRESTED.—A young man by the name of John Carter was arrested by the Sheriff of Cherokee county in this county, charged with horse stealing.

Little Walter Leatherwood is a conscientious little fellow and while the play of Conrad Falski was going on the other night, some old man asked whose that? The little fellow promptly answered: Why that's the P-r-o-s-e-d-e-n-t.

CAPT. J. R. WYLLIE.—Our people were much gratified to meet in our village, this strong old friend of Dahlonega and the N. G. A. College. He is looking well and has not changed one jot in appearance, except a little gray in ten years. He was much pleased with his visit to Dahlonega and fully understands on necessities for a railroad.

GOLD! GOLD!—Daniel Keith has found another bonanza where the people have been walking over it for fifty years. This find is on the road leading from the old Neisler road to the Findley cut. The ore is worth from ten to twenty dollars per ton.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCE.—A young man by the name of Charles came to the commencement and took up quarters in the first ward. Due allowance must be made for any extraordinary derangements of his father for you all know how it is yourself.

Last night as we were closing up our editorials, we heard them at the college chapel. All balance, swing your corners, swing the one you love best, all dance, and make a racket. The young people are certainly enjoying themselves, and let them go while they are young.

ACCIDENT.—Miss Mattie Carmichael of Jackson Butts, Co., fell from a swing in Mr. Meaders yard on Tuesday last, and was rendered insensible for several hours. We are gratified to know that she was able to attend the exercises the next day, and at this writing she has about entirely recovered, and is all right. So her friends abroad need not be apprehensive of any further suffering from the accident.

CHEROKEE ADVANCE.—Mr. C. T. Standard, one of the N. G. A. boys and one of the facile editors of the above sprightly weekly, greeted us with his presence on Monday morning last. Charley is getting on a good paper and his chosen profession is netting him a very handsome income. Continued success to him.

FACTS FOR THE SICK

HEAL THY DISEASES.

Dr. W. C. Asher, a physician of thirty years practice, and A. W. Beale offer their professional services to all who are afflicted with Chronic Diseases, and, more, especially, with

PILES, FISTULA, AND OTHER

RECTAL DISEASES.
Office at Burnside Hotel.

BOARD OF VISITORS.—The following named gentlemen appointed as a Board of visitors of the N. G. A. College were present and held their meetings at the office of Mayor Hall.

Hon. E. P. Howell and James R. Wyllie, Atlanta, Ga., W. F. Jones, Elberton, W. S. Coleman, Eliza; W. E. Candler, Blairsville; H. P. Strickland, Dawsonville, and Capt. F. W. Hall, Dahlonega.

Hon. F. C. Tate, one of the staunch friends of the N. G. A. College, has been in attendance upon the exercises of the same. Our people should be very much indebted to him for the grand successful efforts he made for them, in getting through the last appropriation for the college. He is a promising young lawyer of Jasper, and is now a candidate for Solicitor of that circuit.

W. H. W. Gurley, one of the Headlights of Gaddistons represented that State at the Commencement.

Boon Crawford, who is a genuine representative of the Crawford family of Morganton, came over for his share of the commencement. Boon is one of our favorite boys and is one of the best kind of young men. Boon is death on fresh oysters and "cow chaw."

CAPTAIN.—Mr. John Morris and George Meaders were in a buggy, and came dashing around Britton's corner. They were coming with such speed that the buggy whirled upon two wheels and was capsized turning over the occupants throwing down the horse and tearing up the buggy. None were seriously hurt.

PROF. WARD SUSTAINED.

In order that our readers and those interested, may be informed officially, of the matter existing between Prof. A. C. Ward and a number of students, the following resolutions were adopted, by the Board Trustees which, we believe, will be satisfactory to all parties concerned.

Resolved, 1st, That in the matter of dispute between Prof. A. C. Ward and certain students of the N. G. A. College, and which was referred to the Faculty for consideration, we adopt the report by the faculty, with our understanding of said report, that it does not imply incompetency of Prof. Ward or any intimation that he should resign, or that the report favors the use of the book called Interlinear in teaching Latin.

Resolved, 2nd, That the faculty of the College agree upon the best and most improved methods of instruction in the classics and give the Board of trustees assurances that said methods of teaching said dead languages shall be carried out.

The Board of Trustees have always been able to take care of the interests of that grand old institution, and they will continue to do so; and to them is due the credit of its success which stands as a monument to their honor for all time to come.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

Col. George N. Lester, who is a candidate for Congress from this the 9th Congressional District, will address the people of Lumpkin County, at the Court House on Thursday the 21st of this month. Let all who desire to hear a good speech on Tariff Taxation and finance. Come! Come! Come! and give the old war veteran a large audience.

W. B. Bell, of Cleveland brought his family down on Monday and returned for them on yesterday.

Mr. J. E. Worley, who is now engaged on the Walker County Messenger, called to see us on Monday. Ed is looking well and is filling his situation to the satisfaction of his employer and credit to himself. We are always glad to see our Dahlonega boys in lucrative positions, and more than glad when they try to maintain themselves.

ELIZABETH COLEMAN.—Col. W. S. Coleman of the above number one week paid us a visit on Monday last. He is here as one of the visiting board appointed by the Governor and has taken a great interest in the commencement exercises. He is a great friend of the institution, and will always be found ready to advance its interest through the columns of the COURIER. He is a fine writer, and a number one young man and is making a great success of his paper—and deservedly so.

WHISKEY DID IT.—Fletcher Gorwood was shot and instantly killed by Omer Cassidy two miles east of Tate Ga., at a house of ill fame, on last Saturday night the 9th inst. Cassidy was arrested and lodged in jail. He owned to the crime. He took quarters in the house all night while the dead man lay in the chimney corner out doors.

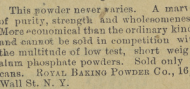

Capt. Frank W. Hall, was elected a member of the Board of Trustees of the N. G. A. College, on Wednesday last in place of Hon. H. P. Bell, resigned.

Capt. Smith, of the 42nd Ga. not only visited the SIGNAL office and we recognized him as an old associate of war times—having been together in a many hard fought battle. The 42nd will re-une at Monroe, Walton county Georgia, on the 20th of July. We publish the call elsewhere.

COMER'S GUARANTEED CHICKEN

Choler! Cure!

After using this medicine for the past ten years, and ever finding a case of Chicken Cholera that it would not cure, I feel no hesitancy in offering it for sale with a guarantee that it will cure every chicken that has the Cholera with life enough to eat a particle of the medicine. You should will REFUND THE MONEY, IT FAILS TO CURE. Please read the following TESTIMONIALS.

Judge HOWARD, who is authority on all points pertaining to the poultry yard, published the following letter in the Southern Farmer: "COMER'S CHICKEN CHOLERA CURE—This Summer I had had the first touch of cholera in my yard for several years. I lost my best cock and several hens. My neighbor, Mr. James T. Comer, of Athens, Ga., heard of my trouble and sent me, to try, package of his Cholera Cure. When I used this medicine I had two hens in collapse condition, too far gone to eat and about to die. Several others were affected. I fed the remedy in food directed to the flock. I gave the two named the medicine in solution. One of these died, the other is now well. In twenty-four hours she was elevated, and in one week entirely well. The other affected fowls all recovered health and vigor in a few days. No other cases developed. All my flock are now well. It is a month now since the disease disappeared. I believe the remedy of my friend Comer saved me from a destructive mishap of the worst destroyer of fowls."

HARMONY GROVE, GA., August 22, 1887.—This is to certify that I have given COMER'S GUARANTEED CHICKEN CHOLERA CURE a trial, and can safely recommend it as a certain cure for this fatal disease among fowls.

W. J. GOSS.
ATLANTA, GA., May 7, 1888.—Mr. J. T. COMER—Dear Sir: When I got the package of Cholera Cure from you my fowls were affected with something that I supposed was chicken cholera in its first stages. We gave them only a few doses, and since that time they seem perfectly healthy, and are now in splendid condition. Yours truly,

W. C. ORR.
HARMONY GROVE, GA., March 8, 1888.—J. T. COMER, Atlanta, Ga.: I have used your G. C. C. C. to any one. It is all you claim for it. Respectfully, Deafness Can't be Cured, By local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional Remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. It is caused by colds, which is nothing but an inflammation of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Halls Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Grasshoppers in Indiana.

CHICAGO, June 15.—A dispatch from Jasper, Indiana, says: Myriads of grasshoppers have appeared in many parts of Indiana, and are devouring all vegetation as they go.

They destroy meadows first and then the foliage of the trees and next corn, oats and garden vegetables. Thousands of acres of meadows have been devastated by them.

GAINESVILLE.

A Blind Negro Pauper's Sudden Elevation to Wealth and Importance.

GAINESVILLE, June 15.—Yesterday afternoon while the majority of our people had their thoughts directed to our visitors and their work, about seventy-five men on the streets were wonderfully wrought up over the report that some ticket held in Gainesville had drawn a prize of 5,000. These men had clubbed and bought 100 tickets.

It turned out that an old blind negro man a county pensioner held the winning number. He brought it to the bank yesterday afternoon for collection. Of course he was a very important person. As he passed along the streets every one had something to say to "Uncle Anderson." Finally, he says: "It's Uncle Anderson now all the time. Yesterday when I asked you for a nickel you don't know me."

TALLAHASSEE, FLA., June 12.—Dennis Williams, colored, who shot and seriously wounded Superintendent McCormick at Ellersville Saturday, was taken to the woods by a mob and lynched yesterday. His body was afterwards found in the river. The negroes were greatly incensed and it is reported they will try to avenge the lynching.

Great Raft.

Little Girl—"Mrs. Brown, ma wants to know if she could borrow a dozen eggs. She wants to put 'em under a hen."

Neighbor—"So you've got a hen setting have you? I didn't know you kept hens."

Little Girl—"No'm, we don't but Mrs. Smith's goin' ter lend us a hen that wants ter set, an' ma thought if you'd lend us some eggs we've got the nest ourselves."—New York Sun.

Just the Wife he Wanted.

She—"I confess, William, that your proposal gives me pleasure. It would be foolish to pretend that it does not, yet

He—"Yet, What? What possible objection can you have to becoming my wife? You know that I love you, that I am able to provide for you—"

"Yes, but I fear I would be but a sorry housewife."

"Why so?"

"Because I have never been to a cooking school."

"All the better, dearest; all the better."

"All the better?"

"Yes. You will stay at home and attend to the cooking instead of wanting to go out and lecture on the culinary art. You are just the kind of a wife I want."—Boston Courier.

A Nice Legal Question.

Bobby had wickedly eaten part of the preserves on the shelf, and so his mother shut him in the closet.

On letting him out she discovered that he had eaten the rest of the preserves.

Mightily displeased, she asked him why he had done so.

"Because, ma," Bobby replied, "I hear pa tell one of his clients that a person couldn't be punished twice for the same offense."—Epoch.

FUN OVER FIFTY CENTS

A Lot of Wild Westerners Bring Their Guns Into Play.

LAS VEGAS, N. M., June 14.—A difficulty arose with the Mackey brothers, John Millburn and two, Texas named Green and Owens over fifty cents. Winchester and revolvers were brought into play and after sixteen shots had been fired, it was found that Owens had been killed, and Green mortally wounded. Millburn and one of the Mackey brothers had their left eyes shot out and John Mackey had his left arm shot in two places. Millburn is under arrest.

STRUCK DEAD FROM THE SKY. Terrible Results of an Electric Storm in Nebraska.

OMAHA, NEB., June 14.—A heavy electric storm prevailed throughout this state yesterday and a number of deaths by lightning are reported. At Lindsay a babe was killed at its mother's side and the mother was unhurt.

At Newman's Grove one man was killed and much damage was done to property.

A CONVENTION of Democratic clubs from all parts of the country will be held in Baltimore on the 4th of July. They will form a national league and perfect plans for a active and systematic campaign. We cannot have too many Democratic clubs even in States which are considered certainly Democratic. They keep alive the interest in party affairs and educate the voters on public issues. A Democratic club in every county in Georgia would be a good thing.

The African Republicans seek to force the nomination of General Alger of the party by predicting the certain loss of the state unless the millionaire son of the Wolverines be thus specially honored.

The General's heart and his unceasing charities, and his Presbyterian piety, have made him great favorite in his own state, but outside of that limit he does not call for much.

His boom has had no spontaneity in it; it has been worked up to its present stage by an interested press clique, and it looks as if it had reached the "end of its tether."

The Trials of the January Editor From the Lincolnian News.

The trials of an editor of a country weekly are great and grievous, especially in the dull months of summer. He is expected to know who has got the biggest squash, the earliest cucumber, and if he doesn't handle pumpkins as glibly and flipantly as he does polices he is marked down as a dog. And after all his earnest endeavor to create something out of nothing some avenging Nemesis dogs his footsteps by day and conjures up horrid nightmares.

Little Girl Drowned.

From the LaGrange Graphic.

A heart-rending accident occurred on Mrs. Gaffney's place, near the old Camerons mill, last Thursday. Charlie Moon and a little two year old daughter of Mr. George Powers, both children of white tenants, went down to the branch near by. Across this branch was a plank. While they were walking on it, the little girl fell in and was drowned. The stream was swollen and the body was washed some distance below. Charlie returned and told his parents what had occurred. Mr. Powers was absent and the mother was so overwhelmed that she fainted. The body was recovered through the efforts of Mrs. Ella Lee, assisted by the colored hands. It is a sad blow to the parents.

Elected President of the United States, 1884.
Married to Frances Folsom 1886.
Nominated for second term as President of the United States at St. Louis, June 6, 1888.
He will be re-elected November 6, 1888.

COL. LESTER'S SPEECH.
According to published announcement, Col. Lester addressed the citizens of Lumpkin county in the Court House on yesterday.
He is no stranger in this town, but has been known by many of the old citizens since his boyhood days, and these standbys are always glad to see him. Judge Lester is a candidate for Congressional honors, and spoke here in his own interest seeking the nomination before the convention which will assemble in Gainesville for that purpose. His platform is for an immediate and absolute repeal of the internal revenue laws, because it has been recommended by all the temperance organizations in the land, and is oppressive to the people. He is also for a reduction of the tariff so as to make it operative equal to all citizens of the United States. He is in favor of a revenue tariff only sufficient to carry on the expenses of the Government, and for an economical administration of the same. He favors an unlimited coinage of silver, and a passage of law by congress instituting state banks without having to pay a government tax of ten per cent as at present.
His speech was a telling one characteristic of the man and the interesting anecdotes interspersed as an illustration of his many points taken brought down the house in many instances.

He wants an instructed delegation from Lumpkin, and made an earnest appeal for help this first time he has ever asked the people of this section for office. He promises to explain through and convey the line of true democratic principles, and work for the interest of his constituents.
The 1st Tuesday in July will tell which way the wind blows.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.
A meeting of the Democratic party of Lumpkin County is hereby called to be held at the Court House in Dablonga on the first Tuesday in July next, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Convention to be held in Atlanta to nominate a candidate for Governor, and other State House officers, also to send delegates to the Convention to be held in Gainesville to nominate a candidate for Congress from the Ninth Congressional District, and for the purpose of attending to such other matters as may come before said meeting.

Chairman Ex. Com. Lumpkin Co.

How She Swears.
From the Waycross Reporter.
We have a lady in our city who always says, no matter what the circumstance may be, "I'm trusting simple trusting." The same lady some months ago was preparing a meal when her stove pipe fell in and ruined it all. She simply exclaimed, "Praise God from whom all blessings flow!" That certainly requires a good supply of the genuine article.

THE Atlanta Constitution, of Sunday Morning, has the following: The North Georgia Agricultural College.
In the course of an interview printed in our news columns yesterday, Mr. James R. Wylie remarked that he had no idea of the importance of the North Georgia Agricultural college at Dablonga until he went there the other day as a member of the board appointed by the governor.

This is the testimony of all who visit the college for the first time. The great difficulty, so far as public information and interest are concerned, is that the institution is situated away from the lines of railway communication. This is by no means a drawback to the usefulness of the college, nor does it prevent the rapid progress of the students; but heretofore it has operated in some sort, as a barrier between the public and the institution. The people for the most part, have had very little idea of the character and extent of its work, or of the good results it has accomplished.

As a matter of fact, the North Georgia Agricultural college is one of the most useful institutions in the land, and it deserves for more consideration than it has ever yet received from both the state and the public. It is turning out some of the brightest young men in the state after educating them on the most practical lines. Looking at the result it is safe to say that there is no institution more thoroughly deserving of success.

The young men who study there need not spend more than $5 a month and they have not only the advantages of a literary course under accomplished professors, but of a military training. Major Bassinger, the president of the college is a ripe scholar, both in law and in literature, and he also possesses the military instinct that enforces discipline and the executive ability that insists on thorough organization.

There is but one drawback to the usefulness of the institution, and that is its cramped condition so far as the buildings are concerned. The structure that was burned some years ago has never been adequately replaced. The state, as Colonel Wylie says, has returned to the college a cold and parsimonious shoulder. The legislature has been satisfied to put the matter off with appropriations that are nothing more than dribbles.

The building ought to be completed and refurnished by all means so that this deserving institution may reach the full limit of its usefulness.

It will be remembered by the readers of the Signal that Capt. James R. Wylie was one of the board of visitors appointed by the Governor to the North Georgia Agricultural College, and on his return, he has this to say, which we find in the Constitution of Saturday morning last:

A GREAT INSTITUTION

Where Boys and Girls are Fitted for the Duties of Life.

Mr. James R. Wylie, one of the board of visitors to the North Georgia Agricultural college, returned to the city, yesterday. Mr. Wylie is not only one of the most reliable men in our city, but he is a man that goes to the bottom of everything he is connected with.

He jokingly remarked that he did not know that he possessed the proper requirements for a visitor to a college. He was not educated at a college, but he is just the man to put on a board of visitors. He had an education that makes him a man of sound judgment and proper direction, and above all things, he is a man that has been tested in various ways and found solid and sound in every duty.

"Yes," said Colonel Wylie to a reporter yesterday after his return: "I am very much pleased with my trip. I had no idea about the importance of the North Georgia Agricultural college until I went there this time. The good this college is doing cannot be estimated. I saw poor boys and girls, who had but little property behind them getting the benefit of an education that will be of lasting benefit to them and to the state."

"What do you think," continued Colonel Wylie, "of a young man at college spending only five dollars per month. That is the minimum, but I don't say there were twenty boys at the college this year that did not spend more than that sum per month besides their uniforms. The students are in uniform and a Went Point officer detailed to drill them. This duty is now being performed by Lieutenant Hodgson, of the cavalry, and he is giving satisfaction to everybody by his attention and care in the discharge of his duties."

Major Bassinger, the president of the college is an admirable man for the place. He has the confidence and esteem of citizens and students, and is making great improvements. The only thing I saw while there," said Colonel Wylie, "that I could find fault with the parsimony of the state ought to finish up the building and equip it with proper furniture. If the members of the Georgia legislature could see the condition of the building and the good it is doing I do not hesitate to say they would be more liberal. It will require about ten thousand dollars to finish the work on the college and grounds."

"The state ought to appropriate it at once and not dribble the sum needed each year for repairs."

"The school equips each year from thirty to fifty good teachers that go out and make their influence felt in different parts of the State, and gives an opportunity for cheap education, unexcelled in the State. Another thing," said Colonel Wylie, "Dablonga needs a railroad from Gainesville. It will make the place one of the most important towns in the State, and one of the most desirable summer resorts."

Colonel Wylie is enthusiastic over the college and Dablonga.

ATLANTA, June 17.—Edward Berry, a young man of eighteen, son of James M. Berry, residing at 84 Stonewall street, was drowned this afternoon at 4 o'clock in Chatahoochee river near Jesellville. Berry, with two companions, was in a boat rowing across the river, when the boat came in contact with the ferry pier which was strung across the river. The boat was upset and its occupants were thrown overboard. Berry made several attempts to swim to the boat, and, failing to reach it, sank. His companions saved themselves from drowning by swimming to the shore. At a late hour to-night the body had not been recovered.

GAINESVILLE, June 10.—On the 22nd of this month the Masons of the Gainesville Lodge will celebrate the day in honor of St. John the Gower spring in this city. Fifteen lodges have been invited to join them in their exercises, and a large number will be present. Grand Master Davidson will give a public address, which will be quite a Masonic treat to a number of people in this section of the State who have never heard his eloquence and gifted tongue. A basket dinner is part of the programme and a knowledge of our tasty and big-hearted citizens will vouch for its extensiveness and success.

The following committees have been appointed for the occasion: Committee on arrangements—Dr. J. W. Oslin, chairman, A. R. Smith, Oliver Clark and J. T. Smith. Committee on reception—Dr. C. A. Ryder, chairman; J. P. Evans, B. W. Wheelock and W. H. Cobb. The State Sunday-school convention convenes at this place on the 13th and 14th of this month, and our citizens are making extensive preparations for the entertainment of the large number of delegates that are expected.

ATLANTA, June 12.—Principal Keeper of the Penitentiary John R. Towers has received the following letter which explains itself:

INWIX, Shelby county, Iowa, June 5, 1888.—Warden of the Georgia Penitentiary—Dear Sir: I am in search of my boy, from whom I have not heard from for more than a year. I fear he has gotten into trouble and will not grieve us by writing. In that case I feel sure that he would hesitate to involve the family name as well as to expose himself to discovery by his friends. But it will be easy to identify him by marks in india ink on his arms. On his right arm are the faces of a youth and a maiden, under which are printed the words "you and I." On his left arm are his initials, "E. P. B.," for Edwin P. Brady. He is nearly twenty one and has dark eyes and hair. Will you kindly send me the address of all other penal and reformatory institutions in your State? I am looking for him all over the United States. Do you think he is too old to be in a reform school? Anxious awaiting a reply I am, yours respectfully,

Mrs. ATHALIA M. BRADY.
Cassidy, the Savannah murderer, is superbly decorated with India ink on his arm, but Col. Towers thinks that he is too old to answer the description. The camps will be ordered examined to see if Mrs. Brady's wandering boy can be found.

From Dr. W. P. HARRISON.
Nashville, Tenn., May 2, '88.—I have used Swift's Specific in my family for some time and believe it to be an excellent remedy for all impurities of the blood. In my own case, I believe that I have ward off a severe attack of rheumatism in the shoulder by a timely resort to this efficient remedy. In all cases where a permanent relief is sought this medicine commands itself for a constitutional treatment that thoroughly eradicates the seeds of disease from the system.

Cancer of the Eye Cured.
ATLANTA, GA., February 14, '88. The Swift's Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: About three years ago, Jerry Bradley a colored man, had a cancerous sore on his face, near the right eye. It caused him a great deal of pain, and he lost the sight of the eye, but was finally cured of the ulcer by the use of Swift's Specific. This cure is well known in Wilkes county, Ga., where he lived, near Danburg, and of this case I myself had personal knowledge.

Affected with Boils.
PRINGLE, GA., APRIL 25, '88. Swift's Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: Allow me to say that S. S. S. has proved to be as good as it is recommended to be. About six years ago I was afflicted with boils. They began in February and continued until last fall. My body was covered with the corrupted matter. I used S. S. S. and can safely say that I have not had a single boil since. S. S. S. will always do the work. You can use this certificate for the good it may do others.

DAHLONEGA SIGNAL.

DAHLONEGA, GA., June 29, '88.

Attention Public School Teachers.

The County Board of Education will meet on Tuesday 3rd. day of July for the purpose of contracting with Teachers, locating schools over the county, &c.

All persons having business of any kind whatever with the Board would do well to be present on that day. As that will be the last opportunity offered before the beginning of the Public Schools.

A few competent colored Teachers can get employment under the Board of Education of this Lumpkin County.

By order of the Board.
C. H. JONES, Pres. Board.
J. E. BROWN, Secy.

COMMUNICATED.
Mr. Editor: There will be a reunion of the old union soldiers, of North East Georgia on the 10th Aug. 1888. They will meet at the Court ground of Cramsey's District seven miles North East of Dahlonega. All union soldiers, and union men and their families are invited to meet the old veterans on this occasion. Spending free to all. We hope all visitors will bring well filled baskets to supply dinner, which will be wanted for all. All persons coming from a distance can find provisions at Tate & Bros. store. We hope none will feel slighted.

Come and see the old union soldiers meet at 4th o'clock Friday Aug. 10th, 1888 and hear them talk. Don't forget the time and place. Grubbeys Dist. Court House 999 G. M. Near Tate & Bros. store.

W. T. Eubanks, after an absence of several months in Anniston Ala., has returned to his family.

Old Jail.—Judge Williams will advertise the old jail for sale next week. Parties who would like to have a jail for their own private use can then have the opportunity of buying one.

The Weather.—The weather has been appreciably warm for the last few days, and the daily showers have caused the weeds and vegetation to spread themselves. The prospects for corn crops have never been more promising up to this time.

Clover.—Mr. A. F. Snow has a small piece of ground in clover. He is engaged in cutting it the second time this season. The first cutting yielded about ten tons and this cutting will do equally as well. He expects to eat it three times who says clover won't pay.

Town Tax Notice

Taxes for first half year 1888 are now due. The books will close on June 30th and if tax is not paid against all delinquents.

Respectfully,
W. B. Townsend Marshal.

June 22nd 1888.

NOTICE.

My wife Blanch G. Cannon having separated from me without any provocation on my part, all persons are hereby notified that I will not be responsible for any of her contracts.

JOHN C. CANNON.

June 20th 1888

The Public Schools.—Mr. J. A. Reed has opened his school at his father's residence in the old Academy building.

Miss Lizzie Chapman has opened a school in Masonic building. John Norton will open at Peep Crack soon.

Miss L. D. Cain will open a school just below Woodward's tan yard in the Price house.

Brown Over.—Bill Bowen of Shoal Creek, White county, was brought before Commissioner Baker last Tuesday charged with violating the revenue laws. He was acquitted and the evidence adduced bound over his son Chip Bowen to appear before the United States Court.

Solicitor Blue Ridge Circuit.—Geo. R. Brown and F. C. Tate are contestants for this office over in the Blue Ridge Circuit. They are both spirited young attorneys and either will do honor to the office. The contest is a spirited one which will be before the next Legislature and we can only await its action for the final result.

FISH KILLER.—Little Luther Hightower comes to us and says that some mischievous person threw a dynamite cartridge in his fish pond and destroyed all his fish. Several hundred were killed, and they were fine ones too. He says that there can be no mistake about the cartridge being fired in the pond, as it was evidenced by paper on the bank green seen on the water &c. If the perpetrator of such offences could be ferried out they would receive special attention by Judge Wellborn.

J. R. DOWN.

Judge Williams is busily engaged in superintending the building of a rock wall around the Court House yard. This is a sensible move.

The old fence has been torn away, and when the job is completed the Court House yard will present a much more handsome aspect, than when the old rotten fence was around it. This job, when completed will be a lifetime one. Judge Williams is taking a great interest in the work.

Women in Business.

In the use of extensive and wonderful development, it is a noteworthy fact that many women have made their own way in mercantile life, and successfully compete with men in many lines of business. Women, whether they labor in the household or in the store, are all liable to suffer from functional derangements and the cares of maternity. For all troubles known under the category "female weaknesses," Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a tonic and tried specific. It relieves the greatest suffering, and restores the patient to vigorous health and strength. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle wrapper and faithfully carried out for many years.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation, biliousness, sick headache, and all derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Constitution Announcement.

The Constitution for 1888, will be a valuable acquisition to your already reading matter. It is one of the leading democratic dailies and weeklies of the South and will contain information relative to all things worth printing that occurs throughout the country. And now that the political contest for 1888 is open, you, reader, cannot do any better than to send for the Constitution daily, or weekly. See their announcement headed "Cleveland and Victory." In another column.

LINCHERS GIVEN THE SLIP.

The Man in the Nose Runs Away When Lowered to Speak.

He made good use of the opportunity, and slipping through the rope jumped away like a shot. The lynchers gave chase and fired several shots after him, but without effect. He has not yet been captured. Bowans was arrested yesterday for assaulting a blind colored man and colored girl. His motive was jealousy.

COLUMBUS, June 15.—Mr. John Dunn, charged with killing Jack Culverson in Lee county, Ala., last Saturday, had a preliminary hearing before Judge McElvey, in Browneville, to-day. After hearing the testimony the judge decided that the homicide was justifiable and the prisoner was discharged. The trial excited great interest and an immense crowd was in attendance. General Harrison, of Opelika, represented Mr. Dunn.

In the Superior Court to-day Walter Smith was convicted of burglary and sentenced to the penitentiary for fifteen years. Peter Sneed and Henry Smith got five years each for burglary.

ATLANTA, June 15.—The damage suit brought by J. S. Cook against the Western and Atlantic railroad for personal injuries, which has been on trial in the City Court for several days, was concluded this afternoon, the jury returning a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $10,000 damages.

CLEVELAND AND VICTORY.

The Democratic Standard UnParried to the Breach!

And the Contest of 1888 Opened

With the Constitution Battling in the Front Ranks.

The triumph of the Constitution in reporting the campaign of 1888 are well remembered! It was the first southern paper to announce Cleveland's election majority, and Atlanta had celebrated that event before other southern cities knew of it. The Constitution led all southern papers in 1888!

Our arrangements for reporting the Campaign of 1888 are fuller than ever before. We have established correspondents in Boston, New York, Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco—and members of the Constitution staff will make frequent trips through the doubtful states. Through special and exclusive arrangements with the Boston Herald, New York World, Chicago News and St. Louis Globe-Democrat, the progress of the campaign will be detailed in the Constitution as in no other southern newspaper. Special letters will be printed weekly from the six leading correspondents of the country.

The Constitution stands, as has always stood, high in the confidence of democratic leaders, and their views will be exposed through its columns. We pledge our readers that the great campaign in 1888 will be reported with a fullness and accuracy never before attempted by a southern newspaper. Subscribe now for the campaign!

The daily will be furnished for $1.00 per month, or $2.50 for three months and $6.00 for six months. The Weekly, 12 pages, and full of the campaign, 50 cents for six months or $1.00 a year. This offer of fifty cents for the Weekly Constitution for six months, ought to put every Georgian who can read on our list twelve pages every week for six months for fifty cents.

DR. MOFFETT'S INDIAN WOOD FEMALE MEDICINE

CONER'S GUARANTEED CHICKEN

Cholera Cure!

After using this medicine for the past ten years, and never finding a case of Chicken Cholera that it would not cure, I feel no hesitancy in offering it for sale with a guarantee that it will cure every chicken that has the Cholera with life enough to eat a particle of the medicine. Your dealer will REFUND THE MONEY, IF IT FAILS TO CURE. Please read the following TESTIMONIALS.

Judge HOWELL Cobb, who is authority on all points pertaining to the poultry yard, publishes the following letter in the Southern Farmer: "CONER'S GUARANTEED CHICKEN CHOLERA CURE—This Summer I had the first touch of cholera in my yard for several years. I lost my best cock and several hens. My neighbor, Mr. James T. Coner, of Athens, Ga., heard of my trouble and sent me, to try, a package of his Cholera Cure. When I used this medicine I had two hens in collapse condition, too far gone to eat and about to die. Several others were affected. I fed the remedy in food, as directed, to the flock. I gave the two hens named the medicine in water. In twenty-four hours the other is now well. In twenty-four hours she was relieved, and in one week entirely well. The other affected fowls all recovered health and vigor in a few days. No other case developed. All my stock are now well. It is a month now since the disease disappeared. I believe the remedy of my friend Coner saved me from a destructive mishap of the worst destroyer of fowls."

HOWELL COBB.

HARMONY GROVE, GA., August 23, 1887.—This is to certify that I have given Coner's Guaranteed Chicken Cholera Cure a trial, and can safely recommend it as a certain cure for this fatal disease among fowls.

W. J. GOSS.

ATLANTA, GA., Mar. 7, 1888.—Mr. J. T. CONER—Dear Sir: When I got the package of your Cholera Cure from you my fowls were affected with something that I supposed was the cholera in its first stages. We gave them only a few doses and since that time they seem perfectly healthy, and are now in splendid condition. Yours truly,

W. C. ORR.

Deafness Can't be Cured,

By local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by Constitutional Remedies. Deafness is caused by inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by Catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free.

THE PLATFORM.

The following is the platform: The Democratic party of the United States in National Convention assembled, renews its fidelity to the democratic faith and reaffirms the platform adopted by its representatives in the convention of 1884, and endorses the views expressed by President Cleveland in his last earnest message to Congress as a correct interpretation of that platform upon the question of tariff reduction and also endorses the efforts of our democratic representatives in Congress to secure the reduction of heavy taxation.

Among its principles of party faith are the maintenance of the indissoluble union of the free and in destructible states now about to enter upon its second century of unexampled progress and renewed devotion to the plan of government regulated by a written constitution strictly specifying every granted power, and entirely reserving to the states or people entire ungranted residue of power. The encouragement of the zealous population, vigilance directed to all who have been chosen for brief terms to enact and execute laws, and are charged with the duty of preserving peace, ensuring equality and establishing justice.

The democratic party welcomes the exacting scrutiny of the administration of the executive power, which four years ago was committed to its trusts in the election of Grover Cleveland President of the United States but it challenges a most searching inquiry concerning the fidelity and devotion to pledges which then united the suffrages of the people during the most critical period of our financial affairs, resulting from over taxation the anomalous condition of our currency and the public debt, unimpaired. It has by the adoption of its policy not only avoided disasters but greatly promoted the general prosperity of the people.

It has reversed the improvident and unwise policy of the Republican party touching the public domain and has reclaimed from corporations and syndicates, alien and domestic, and restored to the people nearly one hundred millions of acres of land to be sacredly held as homesteads.

While carefully guarding with interest the principle of justice and equity it has paid out more pensions and bounties to soldiers and sailors the republic than was ever paid before during an equal period. It has adopted and consistently pursued a firm and prudent foreign policy, preserving peace with all nations, while scrupulously maintaining all the rights and interests of our own government and the people both at home and abroad.

The conclusion from our shores of Chinese labor has been effectual secured under the provision of the treaty. The operation of which has been postponed by action of the republican majority in the senate.

In every branch and department of the government under the democratic control, the rights and welfare of all people have been guarded and defended; every public interest has been steadfastly maintained. Upon its record thus exhibited, and upon the pledge of a continuance to the people of the benefits of the popular trust by the reelection of the chief magistrate who has been faithful, able and prudent.

To invoke in addition to that trust by transfer, also the republican party controlling the senate and residing in both houses of Congress the reformation of unjust and unequal tax laws which have outlasted the necessities of war, and are now undermining the abundance of long peace, deny to the people equality before law and fairness and the justice which is their right. The cry of American labor for a better share in the rewards of industry is stifled with false pretences, enterprise is fettered and bound down to home markets, capital is unjust. The laws can neither be properly amended or repealed. The democratic party will continue with all the power conferred to it to struggle to reform these laws in accordance with the pledges of its last platform, endorsed at the 1st Nat. Con. by the suffrage of the people, of all industrious freemen of our land. The immense majority including every tiller of the soil, gain no advantage from the excessive tax laws, but the price of nearly everything they buy is increased by the favoritism of the unequal system of tax legislation. All unnecessary taxation is unjust taxation. It is repugnant to the creed of democracy that by such taxation that the cost of the necessities of life should unjustifiably be increased to all our people. Judged by the democratic principles, the interest of the people are betrayed when, by unnecessary taxation trusts and combinations are permitted to exist, which, while the expense and abolition of unnecessary taxation on our established domestic industries and enterprises should not be endangered by the reduction and correction of the burdens of taxation. On the contrary a fair and careful revision of our tax laws, with due allowance for the difference between the wages of American and foreign labor, must promote and encourage every branch of such industries and enterprises by giving them the assurance of an extended market and a steady and continuous operation. The interests of American labor which should, in no event, be neglected, the revision of our tax laws, contemplated by the democratic party, should promote the advantage of such labor by cheapening the cost of the necessities of life in the home of every workman and at the same time secure to him steady remunerative employment. Upon this question of tariff reform, so closely concerning every phase of our natural life and upon every question involved in the problem of good government, the democratic party submits its principles and professions to the intelligent suffrage of the American people.

MISS DARE'S DARING FEAT.

Hanging by Her Teeth to a Balloon

A Mile and a Half High.

Though by no means an angel, the young woman of whom the following extract from the London Spectator tells certainly flies high.

We greatly doubt the Moral right of Miss Lymona Dare, the acrobat who ascended from the Crystal Palace on Monday to risk her life as she does even for the sake of getting a living by the exhibition of her courage. According to her own account, which was verified by 60,000 spectators on Monday, she ascends a mile and a half into the air (3,000 meters) in her own estimate) hanging to a balloon by her teeth, which are unusually strong. An iron bar is attached to a trapeze suspended from the car, to one end of which an india rubber mouthpiece or ball of that substance has been fitted. Miss Dare puts her mouth over this close as her teeth and is carried up by the balloon, supported by her teeth alone. There she signals to two experienced assistants in the car, who lower a ladder, by which he ascends, of course, trained to all acrobatic feats, through a trap door into the basket is divided in two compartments by a shawl, and behind this partition I change my ballooning costume, which of necessity, is very light, into an ordinary walking dress, so as to be able to go home without inconvenience when we descend.

Miss Dare declares she suffers no inconvenience beyond a surging in her ears which lasts for some time after she has descended and that through

Three Men Buried Alive.

New York, June 20.—Three of a gang of four men who were laying gas pipes in Thirty-second at Fourth avenue, this afternoon, were killed by the caving in of the banks of the excavation. The fourth got out alive.

ATLANTA, June 20.—B. G. McMillan was killed near Chattanooga to day. He was on a visit to his brothers in Kansas City, and when just outside of Chattanooga struck his head out of a window and was struck by a piece of bridge timber and instantly killed. The remains were brought back here to-day. By a strange coincidence the brother whom he was going to visit reached Chattanooga immediately after the accident.

PITTSBURG, June 20.—Early this morning Mrs. Josephine Mack, living in a tenement house on Sycamore street, Allegheny City, administered strychnine to her three children, aged three, four and seven years, respectively, and then swallowed a large dose of the deadly poison herself. All are dead. Anger is supposed to have been the motive.

GETTYSBURG'S REUNION.

Tents and Equipage to be Leased for the Occasion.
From the Macon Telegraph.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—In the house to-day Mr. Townsend of Illinois offered a joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of War to loan tents and equipage to the society of the army of the Potomac on the occasion of the Gettysburg reunion. The resolution differs from that offered yesterday, mainly in referring to the "survivors of the battle of Gettysburg," and not to the "two armies."

Mr. Kilgo of Texas objected but Mr. Burrows having stated that the resolution in its present shape was unobjectionable, and should be passed, he withdrew his objection and the resolution was passed unanimously.

In the senate to-day, the house joint resolution authorizing the loan of tents and tent equipage for the veterans organization of the society of the Army of the Potomac, at the approaching Gettysburg reunion, was taken up, explained by Mr. Hawley, and passed.

Then at 3:05 o'clock adjourned. Yesterday evening the chief of police received a telegram from the sheriff of Darien, Ga., asking for the arrest of a young white man, James Townsend, who is charged with murder. He is five feet and eleven inches high, and spare built. He was on his way to Texas.

This morning a young man of that description was arrested by Officers Jennings and Hudson. When the Chief and Captain Couch went into his cell he was so badly scared that he trembled like a leaf and could hardly talk.

He said his name was Harriet Tiff and that he came from Ohio, but had been in Tallapoosa for the past three months. He said that he had never been in Darien, Ga. The Chief telegraphed to the Sheriff, and he will be up to-morrow to see if the prisoner is the man he wants.

Valuation of the State Road.
The Western and Atlantic Railroad Commissioners are hard at work preparing a report of their work to submit to the Governor about the first of July. The information obtained as to the valuation of the road is based upon the opinions of expert railroad men and the report will be full of surprises. The investigation of the commissioners on this basis will show that the road in this in its present condition is worth about six million dollars.

GAINESVILLE, GA.

DUMBUS, Ga., June 18.—Near Mountain Hill Saturday night Ed. Jenson and Charles Brewster got in a row about a negro woman. Jenson started towards Brewster with an axe and the latter fired two shots. The first missed its mark but the second went through Jenson's stomach. He died Monday morning. An inquest was held and the jury found that Johnson's death was caused as above. The parties are negroes.

The Superior Court to-day W. Henry and Emanuel Smith were tried for arson. The jury has not yet returned a verdict.

THES, Ga., June 19.—Five covered men in the employ of Powell Davenport, contractors on the Macon and Covington road, were to day digging in a deep cut when loose dirt from the top of the excavation suddenly fell in, completely burying them. A large squad of hands stationed at a short distance off, seeing the accident, ran immediately to the rescue and commenced shoveling the dirt for all they were worth. All five were finally dug out, every one sustaining some severe injury. One negro's head was pushed between his legs and his thigh and back were badly hurt. Medical was summoned as soon as possible and the suffering men removed to camp. It is certainly a miracle that all were not instantly killed.

A negro boy, employed at McCully's planing mill, had his arm cut nearly off this morning by a circular saw.

STAXTON, Va., June 18.—This has been the hottest day of the season. The mercury at 4 o'clock registered 99 in the shade. The wheat harvest will commence this week. The best yield in ten years will be harvested all through the valley. The average is large and the condition of the crop excellent.

Ornithological Episode.
A very curious ornithological episode recently occurred on board the French steam-boat Abdel Kader during the passage from Marseilles to Algiers. Just as the vessel was about two miles out the sky became black with swallows. It was then about six o'clock in the evening. The birds alighted in thousands on the sails, ropes and yards of the Abdel-Kader. After a survey of the deck from their eminences aloft they descended coolly on deck, hopped about among the sailors and passengers, and eventually found their way into the cabins both fore and aft. The birds evidently fatigued, after a long flight, and allowed themselves to be caught by the people of the ship, who gave them a welcome reception and provided them with food, which they enjoyed heartily. The little winged strangers remained all night on the vessel, and in the morning at seven o'clock the head lookout bird no doubt sighted the Balearic Isles, for the whole flock made for land, after having spent a comfortable and refreshing night on board ship.

President Cleveland's Occurrence.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Intelligence of the death of Emperor Frederick was received by Secretary Bay and this morning by a cable message from the United States legation at Berlin. The Secretary immediately informed the President, and the following telegram was sent to Minister Pendleton at Berlin:

The President desires you to make expression through the foreign office of the respectful sympathy felt throughout the United States for the German nation in the loss of their Emperor, who has left yielded to death with such lofty courage and calm resignation to the Divine decree.

Town Tax Notice

Taxes for first half year 1888 are now due. The books will close on June 30th and a fine will issue against all delinquents.

Respectfully,

W. B. TOWNSEND, Marshal.
June 22nd 1888.

Capt. J. W. Boyd, Prof. in the Gainesville College, is at his father's and will spend his vacation here. Joe is a perfect gem of a young man—a graduate of the N. G. A. College, and his energetic and gentlemanly bearing is a credit to his alma mater.

Mrs. Milton A. Smith, nee Miss Mary Wheeler, of Anniston, is the guest of her father, F. M. F. Wheeler, and will remain for a while.

Mary is a splendid lady, and when the puts in her appearance the old folks are extremely happy. Milton A. Smith, her husband, has sold out the Anniston Watchman, but he will still remain in Anniston, making it his home, and will engage in other pursuits.

Hot as blue blazes the first of the week. Wednesday we had an east storm and rain, which cooled the atmosphere and made it more pleasant.

SHAKES.—We have heard of late some awful snake stories. Rumor has it that one has been seen in this section sixteen feet long and as large as a man's leg with spots on him as big as a saucer.

He travels with rapid speed, and is so large that parties who reports to have seen his snakehood, gets up a lively walk to try to keep from coming in contact with him.

Fred Gray, lived in a rattlesnake den. One crawled in the house the other night and struck at Fred's side and bang his fist in one of the side boards on the house. He hung there until Fred shot him. Fred has moved to town.

Home Died.

Mr. L. H. Baker, of Lebanon, Kentucky, Attorney for C. S. Hill, Jr. and Contractor, has been in Dahlonega for several days letting sub mail contracts. A few days ago he hired a horse and buggy from Mr. A. A. Hope a Livestockman of our town, to go to Morganton, and next morning after his arrival at Morganton the animal took sick and died. Mr. Baker is detained at the instance of Mr. Hope, who is making an effort to get pay for the horse. The case was set for a hearing on yesterday afternoon.

Death of Thomas Goodrum.

The funeral of Mr. Thos. Goodrum took place at the Methodist Church in this place on Saturday last at 9 P. M. Rev. G. Hughes preaching the Sermon & Rev. C. V. Weathers assisting. His body was interred with Masonic honors. Father Goodrum was 83 years old when he died. He was born in Union Co. South Carolina, in 1809, moved to Union Co., Georgia when 30 years old, married Miss Caroline Powell of Habersham Co., Ga., when 37, and came to this place in 1879, where owing to age and decrepitude his health began to fail and he became blind. For the last ten months of his life he was an invalid.

He bore his afflictions with much religious fortitude until the end. Frequently he would express his readiness to die. He had bright hope and great expectancy of getting to heaven. Finally, the hour came for his departure and on the 21st inst. at 9 P. M. he passed away as gently as an infant going to sleep. He was a man of honesty, and intelligence—a member of the Methodist church for years. His last days were his best spiritually. As he drew near the celestial city, he would often catch a glimpse of its beauty which would fill him with ecstatic joy.

He leaves a wife six children and many grand children to lament his death with whom we deeply sympathize.

A Very Sad Death.

Tuesday, the 19th inst., Mr. W. H. Parsons, Capt. O. F. Simpson, Master John Speer, of Atlanta, Mr. C. B. Griffith, Mr. E. R. Hodgson and Miss Dora Zettler of Atlanta, arrived in our city as the guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Hodgson, by whom they had been invited for a weeks fishing in the mountains.

Owing to the illness of Mrs. Hodgson the ladies were unable to go; the gentlemen of the party left on the 20th inst., with complete camping outfit they reached their destination on the afternoon of the 21st, pitched their camp in a beautiful spot on the Nontouty creek in Fannin county, and were prepared to enjoy several days sport.

On Friday the 22nd the party, accompanied by a mountaineer, named Newberry, fished during most of the day and came back to camp late in the afternoon much gratified at their success and with keen appetite to enjoy the fry.

Mr. Parsons, who had been most successful in catching the trout, was particularly enthusiastic over the sport, and remarked several times that he had never enjoyed anything more in his life. On Saturday morning after having eaten a hearty breakfast and spoken of boys well he felt, Mr. Parsons started off accompanied by Capt. Simpson, Mr. Newberry and a mountaineer named Watkins, when about a mile and a half from camp, the party was passing over an Indian file over a ridge, Mr. Newberry was in the lead followed in order by Capt. Simpson Mr. Parsons and Mr. Watkins, they were chatting away suddenly, without the least warning, Mr. Parsons fell to the ground, the others immediately loosened his shirt and sprinkled water in his face. Mr. Simpson felt his pulse and heart, there was not a sign of life. With only two or three gasps this strong, robust man who only a second before had been chatting with the others, had passed into eternity. Information was immediately sent to the others of the party, who hastened to the spot and with the assistance of several mountaineers, constructed a stretcher and carried the body of Mr. Parsons half a mile, the nearest point to which the wagon could be brought; it was then placed in the wagon and carried to Ellijay from which point it was taken by special train to Atlanta.

From the moment of starting on the excursion until his sad death, Mr. Parsons was the life of the party, always pleasant and agreeable, ever ready to lend assistance and speak a cheer word to everyone. His death was a personal loss to each one of the party, and caused a most gloomy termination of what promised to be an enjoyable trip.

RETURNED.—H. Odum, or better known as Bud, was in the city on yesterday. He is one of our most expert prospectors. He has been in Georgetown, Cal., for the last sixteen months. He has not been very well on this last visit. He thinks of returning to California.

AURORA HEARD FROM.—Cleveland, Colquitt, Lester Liffayette, Boney Tank, was in the city on yesterday. Boney was asked how he stood on the Congressional candidates. Jim Harbison said Lester, of course. Boney said he ought to be for him because if Lester had given him justice when he was on the bench of this circuit, he would have been in the chain gang. Boney will never go back on a maimed soldier, no way.

Mr. T. H. Gilbert has gone to Jackson to take up a school. He will return to the N. G. A. College in September.

DELEGATES ON A SMASH-UP.

TUESDAY, June 26.—The fast train on the Baltimore and Ohio, loaded with Ohio delegates, ran into a freight train near Chicago Junction at 2 o'clock this morning, while going forty miles an hour. The engines, baggage car and freight cars were demolished and the track torn up for a long distance. The engineer was fatally hurt and passengers were scratched and bruised. All were taken back to Fostoria and around to Columbus. The road was blocked for several hours.

TUESDAY, June 26.—On Saturday morning Mr. Stephen P. Martin, a well known citizen of Turin, was killed by falling head foremost into a well forty feet deep at Henry Hoffman's in Heard county. Mr. Martin and another young man went down in the well to make a blast; the young man told Mr. Martin that he could not stand the gas and was drawn out almost suffocated.

Mr. Martin then called for the rope to be sent down for him. Putting his foot in a loop in the rope he was drawn to the top. When the air struck him he fainted and fell back into the well, mangle him terribly. He was a useful citizen and generally liked. He leaves a young wife.

St. Louis, June 26.—A special dispatch from the city of Mexico says: Telegraphic communication which has been interrupted for several days by floods, has been restored and the particulars of the terrible disaster along the Mexican Central railway, particularly at Leon and Silo, are obtained. During the past two days the table lands between here and Zacatecas have been visited by unprecedented rains. Every mountain rivulet along the Mexican Central railway for more than 200 miles has been converted into a destructive torrent and the valleys presented the appearance of lakes. Many cities and towns have been inundated and Leon and Silo have been partially destroyed. The houses in this country are almost universally adobe, which soon becomes saturated and when exposed to the action of a current of water, speedily fell to pieces. At Silo about two hundred and thirty-five houses were destroyed, but does appear that there was any loss of life, the suffering being principally from exposure and scarcity of food.

At Leon, however, the climax of the flood came in the night, and people were crushed or drowned in their falling houses and in their endeavors to escape to high ground. The town was in the center of a lake, which had formed about it from the sudden springing of the river. The estimates of the loss rather increase than diminish as investigation proceeds.

June 20th was the night of greatest disaster. The very last statement, just received places the number of houses destroyed in Leon at 3,224, and of homeless families at more than 250 bodies have been recovered from the ruins, and there is no probability that the entire number will fall short of 700.

A dispatch from El Paso places the estimate of loss far beyond City of Mexico figures. It says that in the flooded district, not exclusively Leon, fifteen hundred lives were lost and that one thousand bodies have been recovered. Leon is a city of one hundred thousand inhabitants, and a large part of it is in ruins. The Mexican collector of customs at El Paso received an official dispatch stating that one hundred miles of the Mexican railroad is impassable and that it will be ten days before mails can get through and twenty days before freight can be moved.

Shot Him Four Times.

Frank A. Thornton, better known as "Racke" Thornton, formerly residing in Rome, keeps a fruit and lemon stand at the corner of Tenth and Gurnee streets in Anniston. A man named William Pelham, brother of "Gallant Pelham," attacked Thornton with a butcher knife and was shot four times by "Racke." The fuss grew out of a partnership they expected to form to run a restaurant. Pelham was drunk and had threatened Thornton's life several times. Thornton waived examination at the trial and was placed under a $1,500 bond, which was signed by J. W. Noble and R. W. Miller. Pelham says he will not prosecute Thornton.

AFTER EIGHT YEARS.

A Bride Who Had Been Torn From Her Husband Finds Him in Kentucky.

From the New York Graphic.

In October, 1880, John Stine, a well to do business man of Brownsville, Pa., was married to Miss Martha Brannon, the daughter of one of the town's wealthiest citizens. The marriage was clandestine and the brides parents were not told of it for two years later, because they had always opposed the match. When apprised of the fact that young couple was hastily prepared and sent to Europe, but not until she was followed several miles from her home and torn from the arms of the husband, who was wounded by a pistol ball fired by the irate father. Never since that eventful night when young Stine attempted to elope with his wife, has he been able to get a sight of his wife. He wanted all of his small fortune in a vain effort to find her, but every attempt resulted in an ignominious failure. Two years ago he went to Louisville, Ky., reduced in circumstances and bad health. He worked at any kind of labor to be found and by showing an inclination to do right, was employed most of the time. The wife remained in Europe until a vessel for two years, and during her stay a child—a bright little girl was born to her. She prevailed upon her relative to allow her to return to America, and finally her parents consented that she could. Arriving at this side of the Atlantic she began a search for her lost husband, but time after time was met with failure. Not to be daunted or allow any obstacle to be laid in her way she kept up courage and at last was rewarded by learning that about four years ago a man by the name of John Stine had lived in Stuebenville, Ind., and from there had gone to Cleveland, O., where he slipped on board a grain steamer for Buffalo. Going to Buffalo she found that Stine had located in Columbus, O., thence to Cincinnati, and from there went to Kansas City, and at last to Louisville, Ky. Mrs. Stine, in a quiet way, learned that a man by the same name as that of her husband passed down Green street in that city every evening and placed herself in a position to identify him if possible. For two or three evenings the man was permitted to pass unnoticed, but yesterday, being satisfied that she with the child, stood on the walk until the long lost husband and father came near them, and without ceremony rushed upon him. If the heavens had fallen he could not have been more surprised, and the trio seemed overcome with joy. They are to return to their old home in Pennsylvania, where the fortune of the wife is large enough to support them in comfort for the rest of their lives.
